INFO.

To anticipation of a Nationalist attack on the mainland, the Kwangtung Military Control Commission ordered the establishment of the Kwangtung Coastal Defense Military Transport Bureau. This bureau provides a unified organization for transportation of military provisions and ammunition. It began to function on 21 February under the direction of YEH Chien-ying, governor of Kwangtung. Under the new plan the Kwangtung coast has been divided into three sections, with headquarters as follows:

| Sections                                   | Directors               |
|--|-------------------------|
| Guangzhou                                  | LIANG Wei-lin (梁偉林)     |
| Chiangmen (113-06, 22-34)                  | CHENG Shao-k'ang (鄭少康)  |
| Wanning (Tsaikong, 110-24, 21-11)25X1A | CH'EN Ming-chiang (陳明江) |

Comment. See [redacted] paragraphs 17 and 20, for a list of instructions issued by the Kwangtung Military District concerning possible Communist withdrawal from the South China coast.
